The Seasons of Life
Pam Jeffcott—Speaker

This retreat is for all daughters, both young and old—and even we who are in between! Our speaker this year is Mrs. Pam Jeffcott, a pastor’s wife from Cedar City. Pam is a mother of five and grandmother of twenty, all of whom live in Utah. She and her husband Tom met in Bible college and pastored in Hawaii for a short time under Biblical Ministries Worldwide. When that church became independent, they moved to Georgia where Tom worked in the mission’s home office, and Pam homeschooled their five children. In November of this year, they will have been serving at Valley Bible Church in Cedar City, Utah, for thirty years. Teaching women and children is her passion. In addition, she enjoys gardening, reading, and teaching piano lessons to eleven students, in her words, most of the time. She enjoys walking, preferably where the roads are not covered with snow! (Maybe by the time we have our retreat, we’ll have some dry roads. Seriously, we are thankful for the snow pack.)

As you can probably tell, we’re going to be incorporating the four seasons and holidays into our crafts and meal menu, as well as our big game. You won’t want to miss the fun! The activities will be suited for moms and daughters or friends, so don’t stay away just because you don’t have a daughter to bring with you! What to bring is included on the registration form found on the website.

If you’d rather come for just a luncheon and the session with Mrs. Jeffcott on Saturday, the cost is $10 for adults and $8 for girls ages 5-12. Just give Genny Benson a call at 435-384-3001 or 801-822-1792, if you are planning to come only for Saturday.

What Is the cost?
 $55 for those over 16
 $50 for those ages 5-15
 (ages 4 and under are free)
